

Welcome To Best Meetings

Your Meeting Is Our Business!

We have the solutions that will fit the needs of any organization and we will make it happen.

As independent meeting professionals, we provide a comprehensive array of services to associations, corporations and public/governmental agencies in the area of education, meeting, convention and trade show management. Whether you have 5, 50 or 5000+ attendees, we have experience working with groups of all sizes. With a combined staff experience of over 60 years in the meetings industry and the distinction of having a Certified Meeting Professional on staff, we have demonstrated the determination to be at the top of our profession. We offer services from association management to registration software options.

Best Meetings Inc. provides a variety of services that can be customized to help you accomplish your goals. We can assist you in determining your needs and give you the freedom to decide what responsibilities you would like us to manage. You retain as much control as you like and we can manage the rest.

We can save you time by:

- Allowing you and your staff the freedom to concentrate on other projects
- Providing a quick response and turnaround time to you and your attendees
- Dedicating ourselves and our time to your individual needs
- Knowing industry contacts and tapping resources effectively and efficiently

We can save you money by:

- Developing a cost-effective budget
- Eliminating costly mistakes
- Negotiating with vendors and service providers
- Effectively evaluating your needs for future savings
- Providing service options and giving you choices
